How to Keep Stakeholders Engaged in Your Research Project

Self-paced

ENROLL

This free online course encourages researchers to interact positively with their stakeholders over the lifetime of their projects. Organized into five short modules, How to Keep Stakeholders Engaged in Your Research Project features both English and French presentations and lectures from Dr. Renata Serra, the leader of our Enabling Environment cross-cutting theme, and research assistant Pierre William Blanc from the Center for African Studies, University of Florida. The two-hour course is supported by Florida's extension service provided by the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (IFAS). Participants can earn a certificate of completion. If you have any questions about the course, please contact Dr Renata Serra at rserra@ufl.edu or Pierre William Blanc at pwilliam.blanc@ufl.edu

Step 7: If you click on Forgot Password, enter the same email address you used to sign up and click on Request Password.

The screenshot shows the password reset interface for UF IFAS. At the top left is the UF IFAS logo (UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA). To the right is a link for Browse courses. Below the logo is the instruction: "Enter your Email and we'll send you a link to change your password." There is a text input field labeled "Email" which is highlighted with a red border. Below the input field are two buttons: Back to Login and a button labeled "Request Password", which is also highlighted with a red border. At the bottom of the page are links for Help, Privacy Policy, Acceptable Use Policy, Facebook, and Twitter. The INSTRUCTURE logo is centered at the very bottom.

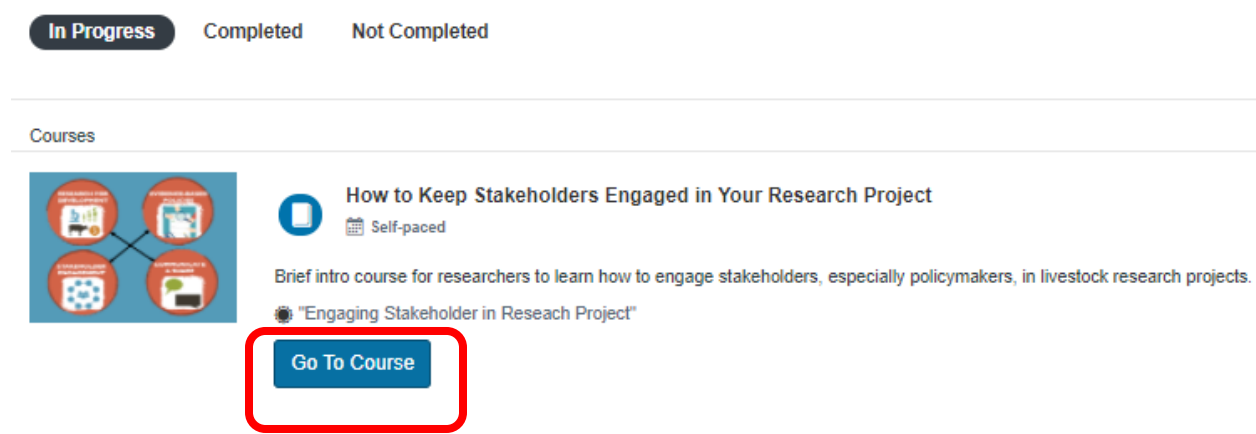

Step 8: Verify your email inbox and click on the link to set a new password.

Step 9: Click on Back to Login, then enter your Email and Password then click Log In.

The login page features the UF IFAS logo at the top left and a "Browse courses" link at the top right. The login form consists of two input fields: "Email" and "Password", both highlighted with a red border. Below the "Email" field is a checkbox labeled "Stay signed in" and a link for "Forgot Password?". To the right of these fields is a "Log In" button, also highlighted with a red border. At the bottom of the page, there are links for "Help", "Privacy Policy", "Acceptable Use Policy", "Facebook", and "Twitter", followed by the INSTRUCTURE logo.

Step 10: Click on Go To Course.

The interface shows a filter bar with three buttons: "In Progress" (highlighted in dark blue), "Completed", and "Not Completed". Below this is a "Courses" section. A course card is displayed with a thumbnail image of four circular icons. The course title is "How to Keep Stakeholders Engaged in Your Research Project", and it is marked as "Self-paced". A brief description follows: "Brief intro course for researchers to learn how to engage stakeholders, especially policymakers, in livestock research projects." Below the description is a small globe icon and the text "Engaging Stakeholder in Reseach Project". A "Go To Course" button is located at the bottom of the course card, highlighted with a red border.

Step 11: Read the information below Modules to begin the course.

The screenshot shows a course page for "Engaging Stakeholders". On the left is a navigation menu with items like Home, Announcements, Assignments, Discussions, Grades, People, Pages, Syllabus, Outcomes, Rubrics, Quizzes, Modules, BigBlueButton (Conferences), Collaborations, Zoom Conferences, UDOIT Cloud, Files, and Settings. The main content area has a header "Engaging Stakeholders" and a banner for "FEED THE FUTURE The U.S. Government's Global Hunger & Food Security Initiative Feed the Future Innovation Lab for Livestock Systems". A red circle highlights the "Modules" section, which contains the following text:

If you want to complete the course and earn the certificate you will have to complete the modules in numerical order. You will need to click on a module, review the PowerPoint slides and do the corresponding knowledge check in order to unlock and move onto the next module. If you have technical problems with viewing the lecture videos through the media site, please consider watching the videos through the YouTube links provided in the module.

" Si vous souhaitez terminer le cours et obtenir le certificat, vous devrez compléter les modules dans l'ordre numérique. Vous devrez cliquer sur un module, revoir les fichiers PowerPoint et effectuer la vérification des connaissances correspondante afin de déverrouiller et de passer au module suivant. Si vous rencontrez des problèmes techniques pour visualiser les vidéos d'un module via le site multimédia, envisagez de regarder les vidéos via les liens YouTube fourni dans le module."

Below the text is a list of five modules:

- Module 1 : Welcome and Introduction
- Module 2 : What is Stakeholder Engagement?
- Module 3 : Why is Stakeholder Engagement Important in Research?
- Module 4 : Bridging Research and Policy through Engagement and Communication
- Module 5 : Practical Resources and Discussion Posting

On the right side of the page, there are several utility buttons: Choose Home Page, View Course Stream, Course Setup Checklist, New Announcement, View Course Analytics, View Course Notifications, and a "Coming Up" section with a "View Calendar" link and the text "Nothing for the next week".
